Free Family-Friendly
Fun at the Fort:
Casper Collins Day
July 21, 2018

Join us as we commemorate the city of Casper's namesake on the 153rd anniversary of the Battle of Platte Bridge with a day of fun activities for the entire family. Interact with 19th-century characters including cavalry and infantry soldiers, pioneers, American Indians, and frontiersmen. Watch firearm demonstrations and cavalry drills. Enjoy toys and games popular with children 150 years ago. Visitors may also stroll through a modern-day vendor mart and purchase hand-made items and food.

Fort Caspar Museum's Casper Collins Day is a free event and open to the public. We provide an opportunity for both businesses and individuals to sell unique items. Final determination of appropriate merchandise will be made by the Event Coordinators. Forms must be received by July 18, 2018.
